

M. A. Part – I, Semester – I

Paper – I, Classical Sociological Thinkers (Code - 2321)

CO 1 : From this course, students can understand the origin and development of sociological theory.

CO 2 : August Comte classical views on Positivism and social mobility are reflected in this course.

CO 3 : This course shows the contribution of social, economic and political factor that promote sociological theory.

CO 4 : Student will understand the Herbert Spencer concept of social evolution.

CO 5 : Durkheim's views on the theory of suicide and the concept of religion become clear in this course.

CO 6 : This course is cleared the C. H. Cooley concept of Primary Groups.

M. A. Part – I, Semester – I

Paper – II, Methodology of Social Research (Code - 2322)

CO 1 : This course will help the students to understand the concept of social research and their various objectives.

CO 2 : The various methods of scientific study of social research and its importance are explained here.

CO 3 : This course will be useful in understanding the growing importance of social research in modern times.

CO 4 : Students will be introduced to the scientific stages of social research.

CO 5 : This course will provided information about research design in social research and their types.

CO 6 : Students will understand the importance of hypotheses in social research and its sources.

CO 7 : We will help to explain the technique of sample selection and the method of sample selection.

CO 8 : It will help students to understand the types of primary and secondary sources of fact collection.

CO 9 : The course will be useful for understanding the nature of techniques used for gathering facts in social research like - observations, questionnaires, interviews and schedules.

CO 10 : Here students will understand how to use social distance scale and sociometric techniques.

CO 11 : We will know the importance of reliability and validity and their challenges in social research.

CO 12 : It will help the students to understand the features and complex nature of social phenomena.

M. A. Part – I, Semester – I

Paper – III, Rural Society in India (Code - 2324)

CO 1 : This course will help the students to understand the real nature of the rural community in India.

CO 2 : This course will help to explain the Peasant community and its characteristics.

CO 3 : This will help us to understand the process of Rural-urbanization in India.

CO 4 : It will help in understanding the nature of social organizations in rural community and their functioning.

CO 5 : It will be clear how the Indian agricultural business is changing over time.

CO 6 : The contribution of co-operative movements in rural development is explained here.

CO 7: We will get the knowledge of the causes of increasing farmer suicides in rural areas and their solutions.

CO 8 : We will get an idea of the adverse effects of lack of irrigation facilities on the agricultural business in India.

CO 9 : The need for decentralization of power for rural development and the detailed nature of the existing Panchayat Raj Yojana for it will be clear here.

CO 10 :The contribution of Governmental and Non-Governmental organizations for women empowerment in rural community will be evaluated here.

CO 11 : It will provide information on how the process of Globalization has a positive and negative impact on rural community in India.

CO 12 : This course will introduce you to the new policies and strategies for rural development.

M. A. Part – I, Semester – I

Paper – IV, Sociology of Religion (Code - 2325)

CO 1 : The origin, nature and scope of Religion are understood by the students.

CO 2 : Student will understand Max Weber's ideas on phenomenology.

CO 3 : This course is helpful of student for scientific study of various religions in India.

CO 4 : Creates awareness among students about secularism and fundamentalism.

CO 5 : Students are inspired by the thoughts of the great saint RashtrasantTukadoji Maharaj and Saint Gadge Baba of Vidarbha.

CO 6 : The importance of religion in social change is highlighted in this course.

CO 7 : Students realize the co-relation between culture and the concept of faith.

CO 8 : Through this course, students are made aware of the impact of religion on the society.

M. A. Part – I, Semester – II

Paper – I, Classical Sociological Thinkers (Code - 2331)

CO 1 : Students understand Hegel's concept of classical philosophy and dialectical idealism.

CO 2 : Students gain knowledge of Karl Marx's theory of historical materialism and social change.

CO 3 : Students will understand Vilfredo Pareto's theory of logical and Non-logical action.

CO 4 : George Simel's concept of individual is introduced to the students through this course.

CO 5 : This course gives students an insight into Max Weber's theory of social action.

M. A. Part – I, Semester – II

Paper – II, Methodology of Social Research (Code - 2332)

CO 1 : Through this course students will understand the types of social surveys and its importance.

CO 2 : The nature of Case Study method and its merits and demerits will be noticed by the students.

CO 3 : Knowledge of the importance of Content Analysis in social research and its steps will be gained here.

CO 4 : The importance of Classification, Codification and Tabulation for fact analysis and their basis will be introduced in this course.

CO 5 : Students will help to understand the importance of social statistics in social research.

CO 6 : Measures of central tendency such as Mean, Median and Mode will help in understanding the working method and formula.

CO 7 : The course will introduce the importance and function of computer in social research.

CO 8 : Students will understand the process of Sociometric Technique and the merits of sociometric technique.

CO 9 : It will help to understand the difficulties encountered while using the Scaling Technique in social research.

CO 10 : Students will understand the components and importance of social research report.

CO 11 : This course will introduce the students to the problems faced by the researcher while preparing the social research report.

CO 12 : Students will help to understand the correlation between Social Theory and Social Research.

M. A. Part – I, Semester – II

Paper – III, Urban Society in India (Code - 2334)

CO 1 : This course will help the students to understand the origin of Urban sociology and the importance of Urban sociology.

CO 2 : This course will be useful to explain the process of Urbanization in India and its impact on the Urban society.

CO 3 : We will receive information on the co-relation between Urban Ecology and the formation of characteristics of Urban community.

CO 4 : Students will notice the analysis of Concentric Zone theory and Metropolitan theory in the context of urban development.

CO 5 : This course will be useful to explain the concept of Urbanism and the consequences of Urbanism.

CO 6 : Students will review the contribution of Park Burger and Mckenzie in the context of urban development.

CO 7 : Information on the concept of Rural-Urban Continuum and its impact on rural culture will be available.

CO 8 : This course will provide information on contemporary issues of Urban society such as population growth, migration, slums, health problems, and Urban crime.

CO 9 : It will help to understand the nature of violence against women in Urban society.

CO 10 : This course will be useful in understanding urban planning and the challenges it faces.

CO 11 : It will help in understanding the concept of green city needed to curb the growing pollution.

CO 12 : This course will be useful for analysing the urban economy and its components.

M. A. Part – I, Semester – II

Paper – IV, Cultural Anthropology & Tribal Studies (Code - 2335)

CO 1 : Students gain knowledge about the origin, nature and scope of cultural anthropology.

CO 2 : Students learn about tribal culture and tribal race through this course.

CO 3 : This course provides information about social institution in tribal communities.

CO 4 : Students notice the analytical study of the effects of religion and magic in the tribal community.

CO 5 : The causality of social, economic, political and health issues of the tribal community has been explained in this course.

CO 6 : This course is useful for historical review of Gond, Korku and Kolam tribes in Maharashtra.

CO 7 : This course reviews the constitutional provisions for addressing the problems of the tribes.

CO 8 : Students will understand the role of Governmental and Non-Governmental organizations in tribal development and problem solving.

CO 9 : Students understand the role of tribals in the freedom movement.

M. A. Part – II, Semester – III

Paper –I, Theoretical Perspectives in Sociology (Code - 3131)

CO 1:-Student will understand the concept of Sociological Theory, Key Problems of sociological Theory and verification of Sociological Theory.

CO 2:- This course is describe the contribution of Talcott Parsons in Theory of Functionalism, Theory of Pattern Variables and Theory of problems of Social Change.

CO3:-Student will understand the Contributions of Robert Morton in Critique of Functionalism, Theory of Atomic, functional and Dysfunctional, Aspects of reference group behaviour and Middle Range Theory.

CO 4:-This course is analysis the Class and Class conflict Theory Of Rolf Dahrendorff , Social Theory Of C.W.Mills and Conflict Theory Of LevisCoser.

CO 5:- Student will Understanding the theory of Symbolic Interactionism-Symbolic Interactionist Approach of G.H.Mead , E.Golfman, Blumer and C.H.Colley.

M. A. Part – II, Semester – III

Paper –II, Sociology of Change & Development (Code - 3132)

CO 1 : Students understand the contribution of the elements of revolution, evolution and development towards the concept of social change.

CO 2 : This course underscores the importance of demographic, geographical and economic factors in the context of social change.

CO 3 : Student will understand the co-relation between culturalization, westernization and modernization with social change.

CO 4 : The Marxist and environmentalist approach to modernization is studied in a scientific manner in this course.

CO 5 : The co-relation between social structure and development is brought to the notice of the students.

M. A. Part – II, Semester – III

Paper –III, Industrial Society in India (Code - 3133)

CO 1 : Students understand the meaning, nature and importance of industrial sociology through this course.

CO 2 : The co-relation between the industrial society and the various social organizations in the society comes to the notice of the students.

CO 3 : Industrial conflict and industrial conflict resolution are clear from this course.

CO 4 : The techniques used in the industry and the effects of the use of automated machinery on the workers are studied here.

CO 5 : Students can study the impact of industries in Indian family, caste and religion.

CO 6 : The contribution of industrial sociology in the development of Indian society is evident from this course.

CO 7 : To study the impact of industry on Indian social stratification.

CO 8 : Students are aware of the impact of migration and urbanization on Indian industries.

CO 9 : The role of workers and the importance of leadership in the industry is realized through this course.

M. A. Part – II, Semester – III

Paper –IV, Crime& Society in India (Code - 3135)

CO 1 : The nature and causes of crime are noticed by the students through this course.

CO 2 : It is clear from this course that the basis of Emil Durkheim's functional approach reflects criminal tendencies.

CO 3 : Students understand the causes of crimes against Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes.

CO 4 : Students understand the nature of terrorism in India and its consequences.

CO 5 : The status of women in India and the types of crimes against women are explained in this course.

M. A. Part – II, Semester – IV

Paper –I, Theoretical Perspectives in Sociology (Code - 3141)

CO 1 :- Student will Understanding to Critical Theory Of George Lukas, Antonio Grimace, Louis Althusser, Max Horkheimer , Theodor Adorno and Herbert Marcuse.

CO 2 :- This course is explain the contributions of Post Structuralism and Post Modernism Theoryby Jacques Derrida, Michel Foucault and Levi-Strauss.

CO 3 :- Student will understand the Introduction of Recent Trends in Sociological Theories :- Structuration of Anthony Giddens and Culture and Agency of Margaret Archer.

CO 4 :- Student will understand the Introduction of Recent Trends in Sociological Theories :- Habits and Field by Pierre Bourdieu, Colonization of the Life World by Jurgen Habermas and Post Modernism by Jean Francois Leotard.

CO 5 :- This course is explain the theory Of Structural Functional Approach by Radcliffe Brown, Talcott Parsons, R.K. Merton and B. Mallinowski.

M. A. Part – II, Semester – IV

Paper –II, Sociology of Economic Development (Code - 3142)

CO 1 : The contribution of educational policy and state institutions in modernization is noticed by the students through this course.

CO 2 : Students realize the importance of economic and non-economic perspectives for economic development.

CO 3 : Students realize the importance of religion, family and social stratification in the development of the economy.

CO 4 : This course explains how the concept of poverty and cultural poverty hinders economic development.

CO 5 : Students get information about the contribution of Marxism and Gandhianism in economic development.

M. A. Part – II, Semester – IV
Paper –III, Social Psychology (Code - 3144)

CO 1 : The nature and importance of social psychology is realized by the student through this course.

CO 2 : Students will understand the concepts of social motivation and personality in social psychology.

CO 3 : Students get information about the components of self and ego in personality development.

CO 4 : The course provides information on the formation of leadership qualities and the direction of publicity.

CO 5 : Students gain knowledge on how to use social psychology in terms of war psychology and prejudice.

CO 6 : Students learn the importance of psychological approach and role theory through this course.

CO 7 : The co-relation between public opinion and propaganda is noticed by the students in this course.

CO 8 : The contribution of the role of social psychology in the formation of national character is evident here.

M. A. Part – II, Semester – IV
Paper –IV, Crime & Society in India (Code - 3145)

CO 1 : Students are introduced to the current status of human rights in India through this course.

CO 2 : Student will understand the nature and adverse effects of the growing cyber crime in India.

CO 3 : Students get information about criminalization of politics.

CO 4 : It is here that the students understand the various theories of crime in order to correct the criminal.

CO 5 : Various measures to prevent crime are communicated to the students.

CO 6 : Students get acquainted with the nature of prison and its effect on criminals through this course.

Applied sociology

Certificate Course

CO 1 :This Certificate Course is useful for increase the appliedness of the subject of sociology in daily life

CO 2 :This course explains the meaning and scope of social problems from a scientific point of view.

CO 3 :Students will get employment opportunities in the social sector.

CO 4 :This Course is generate students interest in research work.

CO 5 : Students have a realistic understanding of personal, social and national issues.

CO 6 :This certificated course is helpful for prepared for research project reports.

CO 7 :To increase the participation of students in Government and Semi-Government projects

CO 8 :To increase the direct participation of students in solving social problems.

CO 9 :This course is useful for the acquisition of practical knowledge along with theoretical knowledge

CO 10 :To create research curiosity in students

CO11 :To enhance the participatory observation capacity among the students.