

After Post Graduation from M. A. program with sociology subject, students outcome as follows -

PSO 1 : The program covers the history of the origin of sociology and the contribution of Western and Indian sociologists in it.

PSO 2 : The program introduces the students to their duties towards family, society and country.

PSO 3 : The program provides knowledge of the new challenges facing the country and the role of students in it.

PSO 4 : Through this program the qualities and qualifications of a social researcher are formed in the students.

PSO 5 : Students get to know the importance of Indian agribusiness and the challenges it faces.

PSO 6 : Students are introduced to employment opportunities in the research field.

PSO 7 : The program introduces various areas of social research and introduces new study methods of social research.

PSO 8 : This program helps to develop the personality of the students from a social point of view.

PSO 9 : This program provides students with necessary information regarding Government and Non-Government job opportunities as well as competitive examinations.

PSO 10 : The program identifies the challenges faced by the researcher while conducting social research and the task of overcoming these challenges.