

Program Specific Outcome for B.Sc. {Computer Science}

The curriculum and outcome of Bachelors in Science degree for computers is structured in such a way that it can fulfill one or more of the below listed outcome:-

1. To make them able to interact with emerging technology.
2. To analyze and identify the computing problem and solve it
3. To stand in era of emerging technology and work smartly with it
4. To get employment in any sector(government, public, private) with the appropriate use of Modern Computers and devices
5. Job outcome for lab attendant. Option for higher education which help in becoming. Teacher, assistant professor, technical writer, web designer, database administrator etc. in private public and government sectors.
6. Confidence to work in emerging technology and adapt new paperless era. Changing the foundational approach and encroaching the computational approach.
7. Use the appropriate tools (search engine, you tube) and requisite media (social networking sites) and analyze data and information from various sources.
8. Solve problem in real world related to network and database.
9. Design and implement web pages and web sites which help learner's to work as a free lancer, with minimum resources and zero budget.
10. Construct a bridge between technology and human which make students familiar with this technical world. And help to stand in this throat cut competitive world.
11. Students will gain substantial knowledge in various streams of computers like C, C++, Data structure, VB.net , DBMS and java programming.
12. This program give confidence, exposure, ability to adapt in drastically changing world.