Chief Secretary, of Maharashtra State & Dr. Rajendra Singh Jadhav, Former Secretary of the President of India was the Chief Guest of the inaugural ceremony. The President of the Berar General Education Society, Dr.R. B.Heda, was the Chairman of the inaugural ceremony. Dr. Dharmraj Veer, Director of Knowledge Resource Center, Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, Aurangabad was the keynote speaker of the function. The Berar Education Society's Hon'ble Secretary Adv. Motisingh Mohta, Dr.Subhash Chavan, Director, Knowledge Resource Center, Smt. Nathibai Damodar Thakarsi Mahila Vidyapeeth, Mumbai, Prof. Dr. Satyanarayan Baheti, Member of the Berar General Education Society, Prof. Dr. Nilesh, Gawande, Member of the Management Council of Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University. Prof. Dr. Ravindra Sarode Professor, Department of Library and Information Sciences, Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, College Principal Dr.Radheshyam Sikchi, coordinator Dr.Ashok Sonone were present on the dais.

Four technical sessions were conducted in these two days national level seminar. The delegates from Maharashtra, Gujarat, Karnataka, Andhra Pradesh and Telangana were present. We have received 152 research articles from various states of India. All articles are included in the Souvenir

I-Technical Session

During this session, research papers were read out related to SOUL Library Software. And other library management software At the end of the session, the questions were answered on the SOUL by Dr.D.K.Veer. He is a SOUL coordinator for Maharashtra & Goa appointed by INFLIBNET, Ahmedbad. Following key research points were discussed in the session.

- There is need to organize regular workshop on SOUL at university level once in a year for library staff.
- Assistance in Installation, handling, updates are not up to the mark.
- The online assistance, SOUL help line which has no good experience.
- AMC should be compulsory with two onsite visits from INFLIBNET
- Technician is the necessity because librarian are not software expert.
- If we want to change server, there is no help from the other side.
- Available at low cost compare to other standard library software

- There is necessity to release web based version of SOUL
- Many SOUL users are facing to install Web OPAC
- Lack of on time technical Support.
- Discusses comparison between SOUL, LIBSYS, SLIM & LIBMAN
- Collection prize is not calculated by software
- Multilingual Data from SOUL1.0 to SOUL 2.0 is not transferred properly.
- Update version SOUL2.0 provided free to all existing user.
- On the basis of overall discussion in the session SOUL, LIBSYS, SLIM are
- leading library management system in India.

II - Technical Session

During this session, research papers were read out related to other library management software & Open Source software .At the end of the session, the questions were answered by Chirperson Dr.Ravindra Sarode,Professor Department of Library and Information Science Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University,Amravati. Following key research points were discussed in the session.

- Libsys and SLIM-21 are better than SOUL but user have to pay huge money for purchase. AMC of Libsys & SLIM is not affordable to the college libraries.
- There are many Open Source Software are available free of cost like KOHA and E-Granthalaya
- Many IIT libraries are organizing KOHA installation and operation training for Libraries. Librarian community should take the benefit of it.
- In Maharashtra there are 23 training are organized at various places with the help of IIT Mumbai during this session.
- Some open source softwares are not user friendly so they are difficult to use
- Open source contain only limited warranty and no liability.
- Even though the SOUL is better choice by the librarian .INFLIBNET should organize University level workshops for librarian in the different states.

III - Technical Session

During this session, research papers were read out related to Library Automation and IPR. At the end of the session, the questions were answered by Dr.S.R.Baheti. Following key points discussed in the session.

- Selection of suitable library management software is important in the process of Library automation.
- Librarian should have up-to-date knowledge of hardware and library software to handle automated library.
- Many Libraries are facing insufficient & lack of Skilful other library staff to handle automated library, most of the college libraries are depend on single librarian.
- Automated library retrieves much more precise and accurate information in less Time.
- While comparing the patent system of India and USA. USA patent system is far more developed than India.
- Networking of libraries and their automation are still in their preliminary stages in pan of India.
- Due to the use of technology in housekeeping operations, it reduces human resources as well as time of users and library staff. Libraries are providing better services to researchers.
- Technology is important to improve the existing as well as introduce new services to the user.
- In the changed scenario of digital and online environment the librarian has to play mediator's role, Librarians job transferred from custodian of knowledge to facilitator of knowledge.
- Brainstorming, Workshops, Training to staff are some important activities to reduce the barriers of the library automation.
- It is found that automated and computerized libraries are playing a vital role in research

IV - Technical Session

During this session, research papers were read out related to other library management & Library Automation. At the end of the session, the questions were answered by Dr.Ashish Raut following key points discussed in the session

- Impact of Technology Quick search of Document/books through OPAC/WEBOPAC
- Easy accessibility of documents
- Modern Library Services is a result of automation
- .Now a days digital library facilities are available this is the gift of Technology to field.
- Improve the quality, speed and effectiveness of services.
- Resource sharing is possible.
- Gift of digital consortia.
- You can access world's best library through Internet.
- Library professional are required to acquire new skills for developing and managing digital library
- Lack of awareness of new technologies in the library community is a real problem.
- Maintenance of software and hardware.
- Lack of funds for implementation of new technology

Feedback from Participants-

This was a very useful platform for librarians to interact with one other regarding library advancements. Such type of seminars /workshops should be organized regularly to provide technical updates to the library profession. INFLIBNET should organize university level workshop regularly on SOUL Software to give technical support to the library professional. Nice arrangement and all the facilities provided by the host institution was good.

Online National Seminar on : "Bhartiya Adivasi : Kaal, Aaj Ani Ydaya"

Sitabai Arts, Commerce and Science College, Akola and 'Department of Lifelong Learning and Extension' of Sant Gadge Baba Amravati University, Amravati in collaboration with Panchfula Devi Patil Samaj Karya Mahavidyalaya, Khadki has jointly organized one-day National Online Seminar on 'Bhartiya Adivasi : Kaal, Aaj Ani Ydaya' on 30th August 2021.

As per the objective of MOU's, PG Department of Sociology has arranged this seminar. First of all, the introduction of the seminar was done by the principal Dr. R. D. Sikchi. He gave many examples of the real life experiences of Achalpur and Patrwada in relation to the tribal community.

Expert in the first session of the seminar Dr. Daya Pandey, Bharatiya Mahavidyalaya, Amravati gave her opinion on the changing status and role of women in the tribal community. He made a detailed analysis about how the lives of tribal women are changing according to time, period and circumstances. Second session of the seminar, Dr. B. H. Kirdak, Shree Gajanan Maharaj Mahavidyalaya, Borgaon Manju gave invaluable guidance by showing the interrelation of various problems related to education and health in tribal community. HOD Dr. Dinkar Umbarkar gave valuable guidance on the various welfare schemes being implemented for the tribal community and their reality.

The present discussion of this seminar has helped to identify the social, economic, political and cultural life of the Adivasi community. Along with this, the students have been helped to understand the status of women in the Adivasis community and the process of social change. The problem of Adivasi community and its root cause analysis has been done here.

The professors and students of both the colleges worked tirelessly to make this online discussion a success. Along with this, Bahati Sir provided technical support for this online seminar.

REPORT

Workshop on intellectual property rights. dated - 18/11/2021

VENUE-Auditorium Hall
Organiser-Research Centre,
Sitabai Arts,Commerce &Science College,Akola

One day workshop on IPR had been conducted by the research centre for all the Reseach scholars,students and other faculty members. Our college librarian Dr Ashok Sonone guided the students on the subject very thoroughly. He stated so many aspects of IPR and described that how it has become relevant and important nowadays.

Explaining in detail about the IPR,he started with the definitions.Ownership of any idea,thought,work, artistic creation etc can be considered for having right under IPR. He elaborated about the patents,copyright and trademarks etc with the help of various examples.Dr. Sonone also put light on how to apply for the process of IPR and how a person can even earn through his/her own ideas and creations.

Our institute has three faculties i.e.Science, Arts and Commerce.Simultaneously answering the questions of all faculty members,he not only solved their queries but also encouraged them to learn more about the topic. Our Principal Dr.R.D.Sikchi,all Heads of the Departments,faculty members and Reseach scholars were present for the workshop.

SITABAI ARTS, COMMERCE AND SCIENCE COLLEGE, AKOLA
ORGANIZED ONE DAY MUSIC WORKSHOP!

Dr. B. B. 2022

One day Music Workshop was organized by the Department of Music, Sitabai College of Arts, Commerce and Science, Akola. Pandit Dhanjay Moreshwar Joshi, disciple of Pandit Ajayji Pohankar from Nanded was the keynote speaker of this workshop. He performed following the musical tradition of Gwalher and Kirana. All the students of Music department and staff participated in this workshop. Meantime Pandit Ajayji Pohankar not only guided the students but also gave singing performance through Bhairav Rag, rag Shudhsarang, Madhyamadi Sarang, and Bharavi. He gave live demonstration on how to flourish the Ragarang using mathematical measures to enhance the emotional range and appreciation. He guided the students by providing detail presentation of mixing of different tunes, and nature of varied Ragas. He was accompanied with assistance of instrumental musical support in form of harmonium playing by Dr Nitaj Lande and Tabala playing by Shri Pawan Sidam, disciple of Ot. Nayan Ghosh.

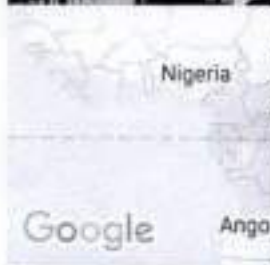

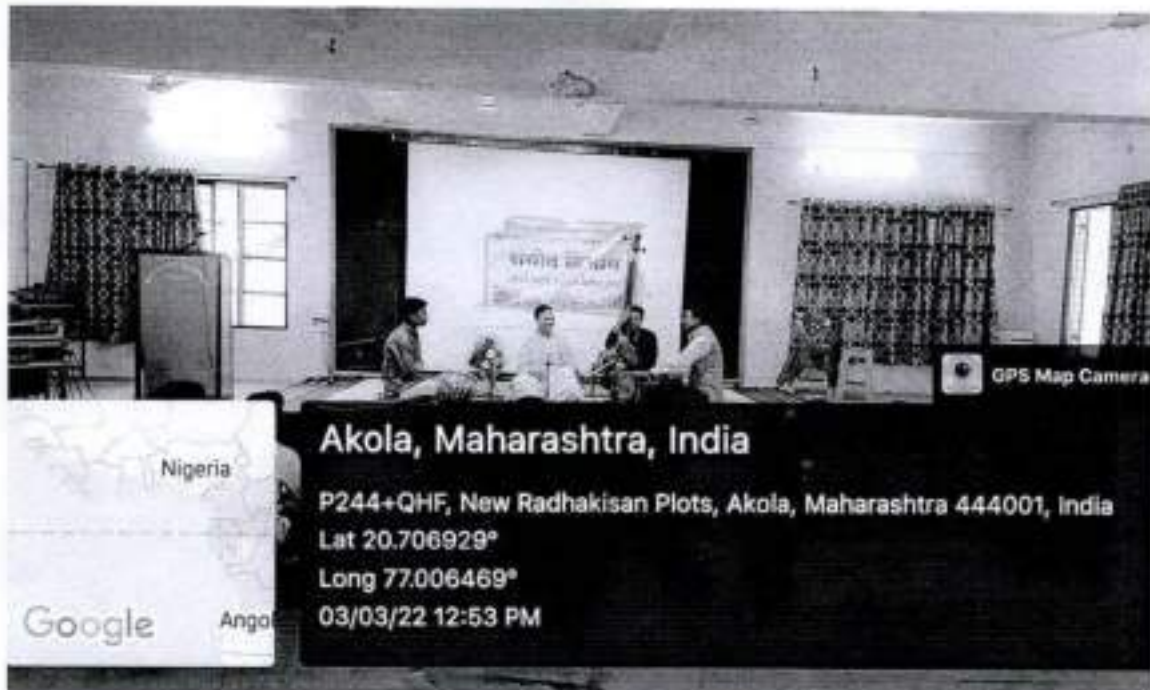

The introduction of the program and introduction of the Guests was given by Dr Snehal Shembekar. This program being the very first organizing of the current year after Covid pandemic, the majority of the students and audience in the vicinity in the city sought heartfelt pleasure. Prof. Dr D. R. Elalkar, Head, Department of Music, had taken special initiative to organize this program. He was cordially supported by staff members of the department, such as Prof. Dr Koumudin Barde, Prof. Dr

Umesh Chapke, Prof. M R Khare, Prof. Dr Ajay Solanke , Prof. Amol Gawande, Prof. Nana Bhadke. Likewise for the grand succes of this program the advice and guidance of Shri Rupchand Agrwal, Chairman, Extension Committee, and Dr R. D. Sikche remained the milestone. The Music Workshop ended with the vote of thanks by Dr Solanke.

One Day Workshop on 'Report Writing'

On November 16th, 2021, a one-day workshop was organized on the burning topic of 'Report Writing' by department of Sociology. The present workshop was organized to inculcate research attitude among the students and clarify how they should do Report Writing. This workshop was organized to give a practical understanding of the paper 'Social Research Methodology' in the postgraduate course. The Department of Sociology always conducts practical activities to make the students of Sociology aware of social problems and do research work.

Through this workshop, students are guided not only to acquire theoretical information, but also to participate in research and how to write reports. The workshop was organized to teach students how to write research report related to social issues, how to conduct research projects in the department and how to write reports when they were students.

An attempt has been made through the present workshop to provide classical guidance regarding the difficulties faced by new researchers while writing a report and how to solve them. Former HOD, Dr. Dinkar Umbarkar as the chief guide in this workshop provided adequate guidance regarding report writing through various examples.. Along with this, seven students submitted research essays explaining the need, stages, problems and solution plans for report writing. 74 students and 11 faculty member participated in this workshop.
